

The Fisherman and His Soul

By Oscar Wilde

"The Fisherman and His Soul" is a fairy tale first published in November of 1891 in Wilde's "A House of Pomegranates". It tells of a fisherman who nets and falls in love with a mermaid. But to be with her he must shed his soul, which goes off to have adventures of its own. Will forbidden love endure? — This reader has also recorded the three other tales in "A House of Pomegranates" which can be found in the LibriVox Short Story Collections, volumes 37, 38, and 39.
